Are you a forward-thinking organization that promotes integrative and complementary health methods, products, and services? We invite you to become a sponsor of this unique, high-powered conference.

Our attendees are 400+ leaders in the field of energy psychology. They are practitioners and speakers and are influential members of their communities. Each one influences hundreds of people every year.

Sponsorship is a great way to increase awareness of your special products and services among the thought leaders of this field. You can sponsor the member’s lunch, coffee breaks, tote bags and more. We’ve created opportunities to work with a variety of budgets. They’re summarized on the next page.
